Phases of Competition:

Personal Introduction (10%) and Personal Interview (30%)

Olivia Miles, Little Miss Kansas U.S. United 2024; Alyssa Miles, Ms. U.S. United 2024

Contestants should wear a business suit, pant suit, or business dress. You should look as though you are going to a job interview or making an appearance. Please be mindful of the length of your skirt. Each contestant will prepare a 20-second introduction speech. You will be judged on oral communication skills, confidence, poise, charisma, projection of personality and sincerity of your answers. Judges will ask general questions about yourself and possibly something that you said in your introduction. Religious, political, and controversial questions will not be asked unless mentioned in your introduction.

Fun Fashion (30%)

Lilli Widner, Teen Miss U.S. United 2024

This is an outfit of your choice that best reflects your personality. You may use accessories. You will be judged on poise, personality, charisma, overall presentation, and confidence. Have fun, let your personality shine! This outfit SHOULD NOT be an evening gown; however, you may wear a dress with a high/low hemline.

Evening Gown (30%)

Olivia Miles, Little Miss Kansas U.S. United 2024

Contestants should wear a floor-length gown. The price of the gown is not important. You will be judged on poise, grace/elegance, overall presentation, eye contact, and confidence while on stage. Be sure your gown fits you well and is not too tight, too big, too long or too short. Make sure it compliments your figure and is age appropriate.

Alyssa Miles, Ms. U.S. United 2024
